

THE FLIPSIDE

ASSIGNMENT: Write a Halloween acrostic.

Halloween is the time for scary things.
At this time, people wear costumes.
Look for scary houses.
Look at the weird shadow!
On Halloween sometimes costumes change.
With a long time of playing, it is finally time for bed.
Even on the 31st we still get tired.
Eating candy is common.
Never enter a haunted house!

CHRISTOPHER BENINCASE
Second Grade

Halloween is a time for treats,
A day to have lots of fun.
Let's go trick or treating.
Let the action begin!
Our second holiday in the month.
What holiday do you go from house to house?
Eat your candy.
Everyone loves getting scared.
Not one person wants to stay home.

BENJAMIN HAYDEN
Second Grade

Happy faces make the day.
Always stay with your family.
Let the fun begin!
Let's eat all of these snacks.
Okay, I'm a little scared.
We'll all get some candy.
Everyone is happy on Halloween.
Even adults get frightened.
Never get bored on this holiday.

RICHARD GRANT
Second Grade

He has a big bag of candy.
All of us have costumes.
Light the pumpkin, Mom!
Later at night we go trick-or-treating.
On Saturday it is Halloween.
Where is the pumpkin patch?
Enjoy my chocolate candy.
Everyone in my family has a bag of gum.
Never go in a haunted house.

MADELYN JOHNSTON
Second Grade

Halloween fun for everyone!
A candy apple is one very sweet treat.
Let's get together and celebrate!
Laugh and shout! It's Halloween!
On this day you get to trick-or-treat.
We saw a haunted house.
Eat candy all day long.
Every house you go to, you get a candy.
Never be late for the fun on Halloween!

KATHERINE CARDINALE
Second Grade

Having a great time is always a delight!
A time to have a good night and get scared!
Laughing the whole way is fun.
Love the whole moment with your friends.
Oh, I love to remember and cherish this happy holiday!
When can you ever keep still because it's so awesome?
Even when you think it's not true, you can sort of hear werewolves howling through the night.
Enter the spooky haunted house if you dare!
Never say "No" to getting me some candy.

AVERY SCHILDHAUS
Second Grade

How do people know which house to go to first when you go from house to house?
Are there really witches and wizards?
Let go of that trick-or-treating basket now.
Light is in every house.
October 31st is the second holiday of the month.
Wow! Halloween is fun!
Everyone likes the candy.
Everyone loves going from house to house.
Never eat your treats when your mother tells you not to.

SUCHIR MISRA
Second Grade

Halloween is really great!
A lot of children get toys and candy.
Look! There's a spooky pumpkin!
Look at the scary skeleton!
Oh, good! It's only a little spider.
Who likes to trick-or-treat?
Everybody likes some goodies.
Everyone wears a costume.
Now let's go get some treats!

PIERCE THOMPSON
Second Grade

ASSIGNMENT: Write a Halloween poem.

While the Zombies Walked

The moon shone in the night.
It shone with such delight
That the werewolf howled,
While the black witch scowled,
And the banshee shrieked.
Skeletons' bones squeaked.
The dark black cat played with her gray mouse,
As the goblin went in a bright house.
The stone gargoyles flew,
As the ghost went right through
The store of many pairs of dark, dressy pants
While the zombies walked in a hypnotic trance.
The bats' wings filled the cloudy sky
Over the place where all dead lie.
This is what happens on Halloween night.
It might give you a scare or give you a fright.

RUDY MALCOM
Fifth Grade

